

CPIN – LINKING CHILD WELFARE

The Child Protection Information Network (CPIN) is part of Ontario's ongoing commitment to ensure children and youth receiving child welfare services have every opportunity to reach their full potential.

Connecting child welfare agencies through a common database, CPIN allows for timely and efficient service delivery to Ontario's children, youth and families.

The Children's Aid Society of the District of Thunder Bay is going live on CPIN on Monday June 12, 2017. We will respond to your calls as quickly as possible, however, during the implementation process, we may experience some delays. We appreciate your understanding and patience.
